About the Speaker: I grew up believing in God, but tended to relate to him the way one relates to a grumpy policeman. That all changed while at uni, when I learned the gospel from a fellow student. I put my trust in Jesus and have been following him ever since. I'm married to Jasmine and have five children. I am currently one of the pastors at Frankston Presbyterian Church. I spend my spare time exploring creation with my family, swimming at the beach and riding bikes.

About the Topic: Life is incredibly complex: decisions... decisions... What will I do once I finish school? How will I survive? Where will I live? Who should I marry? What if I mess up? Just one foolish decision could be disastrous! We all need something that will enable us to navigate life well. That something is wisdom. But not just any wisdom. We need the wisdom described in Proverbs—the wisdom that begins with 'the fear of the Lord.' At West Camp we're going to explore God's wisdom, especially as it relates to some key aspects of teenage life, and let it lead us to the one greater than Solomon, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
